Welcome to USBmechanic
Is your computer slowing down with unwanted spam, popups or even worse, viruses?

You need our help!
Take Action Now and fix it!

USBmechanic specialises in looking after businesses (and homes) who are too small to have their own I.T. person. You need someone to call who cares about your business. It could be a problem with a server or a problem with a mouse; there is no problem too big or small; we are here to help.

At USBmechanic we care about your computer's and your problems. We don't dodge problems and blame other people; we fix them. Don't pull your hair out; call us to get the problem fixed.

Don't spend time talking to a technician half a world away. Your time is valuable; call USBmechanic and get it fixed!
